Baltimore, Md.

Private access

The majority of houses along the west side of this block of Patapsco St. are small, two story, two bay wide gable-roofed brick houses built in the 1850's to provide inexpensive housing for the growing numbers of new workers arriving in the area, many of whom were recent immigrants. A number of these houses have recently been renovated and now serve a mixed commercial/residential use. 1000 Patapsco St. has been remodeled as a two story, shed roofed house with bracketed cornice; 1026 and 1042 Patapsco St. are two story plus attic, two bay wide brick houses. The houses along Patapsco St. were generally built by the owners of the houses located on the western sections of the lots, facing on S. Charles St.

DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This group of two story brick houses with gable roofs was built in the late 1840's-early 1850's and originally served as housing for less affluent members of the community. The houses now serve as storage areas.

The houses are two stories in height, range in width from 10 1/2' (1046) to 14' (1048) wide, and occupy lots 60 1/2' deep. Each house is two rooms deep. The houses are constructed in common bond. The low-pitched gable roof has a two-tier brick cornice. 1044 and 1046 Patapsco each have a single chimney located along the peak of the gable roof on the north side of the house.

The first floor door and window openings have segmentally arched brick lintels and the second floor openings have flat wood lintels. All of the sills are wood. All of the window openings are currently boarded. Each house has a late panel door set beneath a single light transom, which has been painted or covered over. The entrances are reached directly from the sidewalk. The houses appear to have no basements. A flat-roofed alleyway runs back under the northernmost bay of 1048 Patapsco St.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

Addison

See under 1028-1038 Patapsco St.

These houses were built on property developed by Samuel S. Addison at the north-east corner of Charles and Cross Sts. Unlike the houses built at 1028-1038, Addison did not retain these houses for rental income but sold them to individual owners. See also under 1049-1055 S. Charles St.
